3 Comisiynydd Heddlu a Throsedd/Police and Crime Commissioner
Croesawyd Arfon Jones (Comisiynydd yr Heddlu a Throsedd) a Mark Armstrong (Prif Arolygydd Heddlu Gogledd Cymru) i'r cyfarfod. Diolchodd Arfon Jones am y gwahoddiad i'r cyfarfod gan ymddiheuro nad oedd wedi mynychu ynghynt. Cafwyd grynodeb ganddo o'i gyfrifoldebau a'i amcanion gan nodi ei fod yn atebol i gymunedau lleol gogledd Cymru, gyda'r nod o ddarparu gwasanaeth Heddlu effeithlon ac effeithiol. Amlinellwyd y prif meysydd gwaith a sialensau oedd yn gwynebu'r Heddlu ar hyn o bryd.

Diolchwyd i Arfon Jones am ei gyflwyniad. Nododd Meg Roberts bod pryderon wedi eu nodi gyda'r Heddlu yn y gorffennol am y ffordd mae'r gwasanaeth yn cael ei gynnal ond nad unrhyw beth wedi digwydd na newid. Nodwyd nad oedd derbynydd llawn amser yng ngorsaf yr Heddlu yn Llangefni, ac mai dyma oedd prif hwb yr Heddlu ym Mon? Nid oes celloedd ym Mon mwyach ac felly mae heddweision yn gorfod gadael yr ynys unwaith bod ganddynt rhywun yn eu meddiant. Nodwyd nad oedd cyfleusterau Mon yn cyrraedd safonnau ac felly nad oeddent yn gallu cael eu defnyddio. Gosodir y safonnau yma gan y Swyddfa Gartref er mwyn sicrhau na fyddai unrhywun yn marw tra yng ngofal yr Heddlu.

Nodwyd bod gwasanaeth yr Heddlu yn fwy na heddweision, a bod grwp #Caru Amlwch yn ddiweddar wedi derbyn gwobr am waith gyda phobl ifanc. Trafodwyd y posibilrwydd o ehangu gwaith gwirfoddol, gan gydnabod byddai well i heddweision ddelio a throeseddau yn hytrach nac eistedd y tu ol i ddesg. Nodwyd hefyd bod llawer o waith i godi ymwybyddiaeth a diogelu pobl yn ogystal ac ymladd troseddau. Cafwyd wybod gan Mark Armstrong bod y nifer o droseddau yn cael eu cofrestru gyda'r heddlu yn cynyddu, ond bod rhaid i'r heddweision ganolbwyntio ar yr achosion mwyaf.

Fe ofynnodd Myrddin Owens i Arfon Jones os oedd yn hapus a'r nifer o swyddogion oedd yn gallu siarad Cymraeg. Mewn ymateb nododd Mr Jones y byddai'n fuddiol cael llawer iawn mwy o heddweision oedd yn gallu'r Gymraeg. Mae llawer yn gallu'r Gymraeg on ddim yn hyderus. Nododd ei fod yn edrych ar ffyrdd o gynyddu'r nifer sydd yn defnyddio'r Gymraeg, a bod gwaith yn mynd yn ei flaen i geisio gwella'r system a'r gwasanaeth a gynnigir. Nododd Gareth Roberts fod y dref wedi bod yn lwcus iawn gyda'r heddweision sydd yn gweithio yng ngorsaf Amlwch.

Fe ofynnodd Gareth Roberts am ddiweddariad gan yr Heddlu ynglyn a thrafodaethau gyda Horizon am ddatblygiad Wylfa Newydd. Nodwyd bod yr Heddlu wedi bod yn trafod gyda'r cwmni ers pedair mlynedd bellach ond yn dal i ddisgwyl am ymateb beth a gawn i'r ardal.

Diolchwyd i Arfon Jones a Mark Armstrong am eu hamser i gwrdd a'raelodau.

Arfon Jones (Police and Crime Commissioner) and Mark Armstrong (Chief Inspector, North Wales Police) were welcomed to the meeting. Arfon Jones thanked the Council for the invitation and apologised that he had not been able to attend sooner. He gave an overview of his responsibilities and objectives, noting that he was answerable to the local communities of North Wales, with the aim of providing an effective and efficient police service. The main areas of work and challenges facing the police at present were outlined Arfon Jones was thanked for his presentation. Meg Roberts noted that concerns had been raised with the Police in the past about the way in which the service is managed but no action had been taken or changes made. It was noted that there was no full time receptionist at the Llangefni Station and that this was the main police hub on Anglesey? There are no cells on Anglesey anymore and as such police officers have to leave the island as soon as they have someone in custody. It was noted that the facilities on Anglesey no longer reached specific standards and therefore could not be used. The standards are set by the Home Office in order to ensure that there are no deaths whilst in police custody.

It was noted that the Police service was far more than police officers and that #Caru Amlwch group had recently received an award for work with young people. The possibility of extending volunteer work was discussed, acknowledging that it would be better for police officers to be tackling crimes rather than sitting behind a desk. It was also noted that a fair amount of work to raise awareness and safeguard people as we well as tackling crimes. Mark Armstrong noted that the number of offences reported to the police had increased, but that the police officers had to concentrate on the major crimes.

Myrddin Owens asked Arfon Jones if he was happy with the number of officers who were able to speak Welsh. In response Mr Jones noted that it would be of benefit to have many more officers that were able to communicate in Welsh. Many are able to speak Welsh but lack confidence to do so. He is looking at ways in which to increase the number making use of the language, and work is ongoing to improve the system and the service offered. Gareth Roberts noted that the town had been very lucky with the officers working from the station in Amlwch.

Gareth Roberts asked for an update from the Police with regard to the discussions with Horizon regarding the development of Wylfa Newydd. It was noted that the Police have been in discussions with Horizon for four years but still waiting on a response as to what the area will gain.

Arfon Jones and Mark Armstrong were thanked for their time to meet with the Members.

Agreed to ask the other two councillors as they are members of the decision-making ruling group. Officers in Llangefni should know that there is land in Amlwch and where it is located.
